Activity 8

To write a resolution

My story resolution

At midnight, Alek trudged down to the old, dilapidated barn. The moon was like a white coin in the night and the bright stars freckled the darkness. It was icy cold. Thundering across the fields came the white horse. "What is your wish?" it called to Alek. At that moment, Alek had an idea. At first it was just a seed of an idea but soon the seed took root. Standing still, beneath the grinning moon and the speckled stars, he called out.

"I wish for my father to see our baby in a cradle made of gold!"

"Good wish," whinnied the horse, galloping away.

How did Alek combine his three wishes?

His father's wish - Alek wished he could see the baby his wife wanted

His mother's wish - Alek wished the baby was in a gold cradle - they could sell this for money

His wife's wish - Alek wished for a baby
