

Activity 7

1. Rhys has been asked by the teacher to proof read his work to check he has correctly spelt the words written with the suffixes -ate -ise -ify.

Underline the suffixes and then use a dictionary to check the correct spelling and write it in the margin at the left hand side.

It was a hot sunny day and Jack was trying to motiveate himself to help his mum decoreate his bedroom. He had been nagging his mum for months because he wanted to personallise his room but she kept saying, "These things don't just materiallise Jack, you have to put in some effort!"

Jack decided to activate his arms enough to spread red paint onto one wall and white onto the other. After a while, he decided that decorating really wasn't that difficult and if he tried hard enough he could simpleify anything!
