

Lesson 2- Headlines

Look at these headlines. Now think of better and catchier ways of

Man gets away with stealing lots of money from a bank

An old popstar is told he can't enter a party in London

Local girl came first in an international running race yesterday

A really mean dog harms some small animals in a wood

Challenge:

Create some interesting headlines of your own. It could be something that happened in your house today, or something you have seen on the television.
